

This map displays the state of Idaho, with its boundaries clearly defined. The state is divided into numerous land parcels, each identified by a unique number. These parcels are distributed across the entire state, with some areas containing multiple parcels. The parcels are numbered 1 through 170, with some numbers appearing in circles and others in polygons. The map also shows the locations of several towns and cities, including Moscow, Lewiston, Grangeville, Weiser, Payette, Emmett, Boise, Nampa, Hailey, Challis, Salmon, Hamilton, Lolo, Missoula, Polson, Helena, Deer Lodge, Anaconda, Butte, Dillon, St. Anthony, Rexburg, and Idaho Falls. The map is oriented with North at the top, and the state's name, 'Idaho', is written vertically in the center.
